PICKENS WILL HAVE FAIR

A meeting of the Pickens County Fair Association was held in the court house Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock to determine whether or not they would have another fair this fall.

It was unanimously decided to have a fair.

The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: T. J. Mauldin, Pres.; R. T. Hallum, V. Pres.; W. J. Bolt, Sec.; J. N. Hallum, Treas. J. F. Harris, Gen'l. Mgr.

The meeting was very enthusiastic and all the indications point to another successful fair.

RAILROAD TROUBLE.

The Georgia Railroad has run into an open switch. There seems to be a stubborn strike and the proverbial Billy-goat have met on the foot log and neither will lie down and let the other walk over.

The management want negro firemen on the locomotives and the other help do not want them. That small matter may kindle a big fire.

Demonstrations of violence by excited crowds have been made in Augusta, Thomson and Athens. Nothing but cool, careful work by prudent men on both sides can avert a far reaching calamity. Statute law connects the railroads in the United States. Community of interest connects the labor unions.

CLEMSON COLLEGE.

The little family jars at Clemson College serve to keep its name in the papers, and gives to editors and correspondents all the excuse they need for saying anything they think. The Columbia State asks "Why Clemson?" The Anderson Daily Mail uses a column to give many potent reasons on the "why." Others want the State to take full charge and not be in partnership with the testamentary trustees. These trustees as has been often shown never have been dictatorial or partisan. The record of the proceedings shows no line of demarcation. There is no place for the taxpayer to kick. It is doing well—doing a great work and this invites the slings and arrows of resentment.

Corn $1.10, cotton 11 cents. Plant more corn. A thoughtful farmer said last week, South Carolina would have no place to store her wealth in ten years, if all the farmers north of Columbia raised enough hay, wheat and corn to run themselves. No more power or expense is needed. Just turn the current from cotton to other products.

The delegates to the Southern Baptist Convention at Louisville have returned with a wonderful impression of the magnitude of the work to be done and an inspiration that assures success. It is exhilarating to hear them talk.

Whatever you do do something. If you do all bad, this will inspire some one to call attention to your redeeming traits. If you do well, there will be enough resentment to advertise your meanness.

The clouds will roll by, the sun will shine out and shine down and the scars from the storm will disappear. A bud worm May sometimes hands up a good wheat harvest.

There is a much better and easier profit in raising mules and buying cotton, than there is in raising cotton and buying mules.

The clouds went to the Mecklenburg celebration at Charlotte last week and poured out their Catechee's News Budget.

As was announced in this paper last week, Mr. DeForest Williams died in the Hospital at Aberdeen, Washington, on the 14th inst. and his brother, Wade had his body embalmed and started home with his remains on the 15th. They reached Norris on No. 41 on the night of the 20th inst. His remains were carried immediately to his mother's, Mrs. A. B. Williams, of Norris, where they remained until the next day (Friday) about 1 p. m. and were then carried to the Baptist Church at Norris and his funeral preached by Rev. W. M. Walker after which all that was mortal of him was carried to Mt. Zion cemetery at Central and laid to rest beside his father, the late A. B. Williams, who preceded him to that world beyond about eight years ago.

The deceased was a single man, about 30 years old. He left home about ten years ago and went to Indiana where he remained for two years. When his father died he came home and stayed a few days after which he and his brother Wade left and went to Aberdeen, Wash., where they have remained ever since. DeForest was on the police force when he took sick and had been for some time. His employers say he made a faithful and fearless officer, always ready and willing to discharge any duties that might be involved upon him.

He was sick 48 days. He was first taken with the grip and was confined in the hospital several days after which he got better and went on duty again. He was then stricken down with paralysis from which he never did recover. The deceased never had united with any church but just before his death Father Griffin of the Catholic hospital where he was confined baptised him. He told his brother Wade just before he died that he had been baptized and that every thing was all O. K. with him.

De Forest was a young man who always stood ready and willing to do his part in anything. His brother J. W. Williams tells us that even in a trade or any kind of a transaction with his brothers or strangers he would do more than was his part rather than to have hard feeling. He always stood ready to lend a helping hand in any kind of a benevolent purpose or cause.

He belonged to both the Odd Fellows and the Red Men. The Odd Fellows of Catechee attended the burying and carried out the rules of the order.

The deceased leaves a mother, one living sister, Mrs. Turner Arnold of Central, and four brothers, namely, W. J., J. W., Wade and Barney Williams of Catechee besides a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

There were about four hundred people attended his burying.

We extend our heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved family.

Mr. Wade Williams will return to Aberdeen in a few days to wind up his and his deceased brother's business after which Wade will come back to Pickens county to spend the rest of his days.

Wade likes Aberdeen fine but at the request of his mother who is getting old he will come back home.

Wade is looking well and from all appearances has been enjoying good health.

They have both accumulated some property since they went to Aberdeen.

J. F. Williams, of Catechee was one among the number who went to Charlotte, N. C., last week to see Pres. Taft. Jolly says he enjoyed his trip fine and hopes to have the pleasure of visiting the city of Charlotte again soon. That "hustler" Bob Robinson, of Liberty accompanied Mr. Williams and every body knows Bob never meets a stranger.

Mr. J. E. Christopher, Mrs. W. N. Gantt and Mrs. Whitnirre and two daughters, Misses, Hassie and Rennie, of Catechee, visited in Pickens last Sunday.

Eugene Stenton, of Catechee got pretty badly hurt at Central

Mr. Barney Whitnirre of Eastley, attended the Williams burying last Friday.

In making mention of Mr. Duff Bolding's wheat last week the compositor or some one else through an error made it read 5 in. to the stalk instead of 5 in. to the head.

Mistakes will sometimes occur.

EAGLES IN THE COUNTRY.

M. M. Rogers, of Liberty Killed Big One last Friday. Milt Childs of Traveller's Rest Killed One Saturday.

Mr. Milt Childs, of Traveller's Rest, shot and killed a large eagle Saturday at Traveller's Rest, which measured 7 feet 4 inches from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other. The eagle was perched upon a limb of a tree watching some young pigs feeding in a pen. Mr. Childs securing his trusty old gun, got within shooting distance, and with a clever shot brought the big bird down. The left wing of the eagle was broken. It gave a spirited battle before Mr. Childs finally managed to kill it. Mr. Childs says there is another one near his place even larger than the one he killed on Saturday.—Greenville Daily Piedmont.

On last Friday morning, the 21st instant, Mr. M. M. Rogers, of the Liberty side heard a terrible cawing out in his pasture from a lot of crows and looking out he saw what he first thought might be a large hawk or owl in a tree, but, after getting his gun and going up nearer discovered that it was an eagle. He shot at it, breaking its wing, and on approaching it, it put up a bold front; he shot it again and this time succeeded in killing it.

The eagle measured six feet and eight inches from tip to tip of wings. That evening he had it on exhibition in Pickens and it created quite a lot of interest. Mr. Rogers gave the carcass to Mr. Wade C. O'Dell, of Liberty who will have it stuffed and keep it. It was quite a large and vicious looking bird.

Lived 152 Years.

Wm. Parr—England's oldest man—narrated the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be youthful at 80. James Wright, of Spurluck, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." They're a god send to weak, sickly rundown or old people. Try them. 50c at all Druggists.

Health of this community is very good at this writing.

The farmers will soon be ready to go to working over their crops. Some of the corn is looking fine while some of the cotton has a sickly look. There are splendid indications for a fine grain crop.

Rev. W. M. Walker filled his regular appointments at Six Mile Saturday.

The singing at Six Mile Sunday afternoon was greatly enjoyed by the young folks who were present.

SHOES:—I have recently put in a line of shoes, not the largest in town but all new, clean, stylish stuff; fit any foot, from the infant's (at a quarter a pair) on up to the boys, misses, men's and women's. Look through this line as I can save you some money. Some specials for ladies in soft sole shoes, as comfortable as a kid glove. Modest price. How about the bleached and lonsdale underwear. Cheaper than buying the material and saves all the worry of making. I won't tell how cheap I will sell pants, especially in 30 to 32 waist sizes. If this happens to be your size something good is coming to you. Come and see. I have all sizes.

It Will Soon be Time to Side Dress Your

The farmers of Anderson county are going to do more top dressing this year than they have ever done. Top dressing or side dressing has been on the increase in this county for the last few years and it has paid so well that nearly every progressive farmer is going to do more or less of it this year. We hear of one man who put in very little fertilizer last year before planting his crop. He side dressed liberally and made 70 bales of cotton on 60 acres of ground. That is the kind of farming that pays. Farming is a poor business when you work two and three acres to make a bale of cotton but it is a very profitable business when you can make a bale of cotton or more to the acre. We have about four thousand acres of handsome high grade ammoniated goods suitable for side dressing. It will take more than this for the farmers of Anderson county if they use it as liberal as they will find it profitable to do, and then we are selling this fertilizer in Abbeville, Greenwood, Greenville, Pickens and Oconee counties. The farmers in these counties do not side dress to the extent that farmers in Anderson county side dress, but they are coming to it and will do more of it than ever this year as they are finding out that it is very profitable. When the fertilizer is put in the ground before the crop is planted or even when it is planted, the spring rains come along before the plant germinate and take root, and the fertilizer goes down in the ground so fast that the root of the plant cannot catch much of it; it has too long a lead. When you wait until the cotton comes up and is thinned to a stand and worked out and then side dress it with first-class high grade ammoniated goods such as we manufacture, the roots of the plant are just surrounded with food and nourishment for the plant. Every particle of the fertilizer used in the side dressing goes to the growing crop; that is the object of fertilizing, you want the growing crop to get the fertilizer. You will see the effect of this in the growing and in the gathering. The man who side dresses liberally is the man who will have the brag crop; you can put that down. It may be that you cannot side dress your whole crop but you can side dress a good part of it and that will enable you to see whether it pays or not. We are manufacturing a specially hand-some goods this year for side dressing which we call "Vandiver's Side Dresser," analyzing 8-5-6 and we recommend it to you with absolute confidence. We certainly would not put our name on it if we did not feel that it would prove satisfactory to all who use it. It is the best grade of goods that has ever been manufactured in this country. It analyzes higher and we confidently believe it will give better results than anything you have ever tried in the way of ammoniated fertilizer. It is the best goods because it is made of the best material.

In the old blue back spelling book which we all thumbed in pursuit of that knowledge which seems to be eluded the most of us we find the maxim laid down that "the best is the cheapest." If that doctrine applies to spelling books, and we suppose it does at least we are not going to step to test or discuss that question now, we are selling fertilizer now not spelling books; if that doctrine applies to spelling books it certainly applies to fertilizers. If a spelling book is weak in certain points and you find it out you can discard it and get another. If your fertilizer turns out to be weak you will find that out all right enough and you will discard it and get another, but the trouble is you have lost your crop and a year's work and every hand and mule on your place has less a year's work before you find it out. The only thing you will carry over from that year will be the year's debts. So, it will pay you to get a good fertilizer at the start, one that is shown on analysis to be all that a fertilizer should be and in this connection we call your attention to the analysis of our fertilizers made at Clemson College this year. They have all stood up on the analysis and analyze better than we guarantee them to be. We knew they would do it for we put the stuff in them to make them do it. We are willing to pin our faith to and rest our case on the fertilizers that we have manufactured this year. The analysis at Clemson College show that they are just exactly right.

Now we have got this side dresser and it is for sale and it will be to your interest as well as ours for you to try it and try it liberally.
